Rattlesnake Hills
WASHINGTON STATE

It was thought that Washington was not hot enough to ripen Zinfandel – not true! At the northern end of the Yakima valley in our Rattlesnake Hills we have sufficient heat to do so.

There's a gorilla on the label – how do we explain that? Our home town of Zillah rhymes with Gorilla, we have six windmills on our properties, and our appellation is Rattlesnake Hills! Who could resist temptation?
